I trust in my Father with all my heart.
I trust who He is and I trust what He says.

He knows me by name and calls me His friend.

Before I was born, my Father planned to show me all His kindness and all His love.

Now that I count on Him,
our friendship is fixed in Jesus.

God is true. He never lies and He never fails.
I believe the truth He speaks even when what I see is different.

The truth is that He healed me and He freed me.
He gave me everything I need.

My Father wrote my future and that is where He stands.

He is calling me by name to walk towards Him and fulfil all His plans.

Heaven is my home above and
I always think about it.

I fix my heart on my true home.
I fix my heart on Him.

I know in my heart that His promises have already come true for me.

I always believe and I always obey
so that they become my reality.

My Father believes in me and I grow stronger when I trust in Him.

I can do all things through His strength and together we can do impossible things.

I hide myself in Jesus
where the Father and I are one.

I want to be just like Him
so I follow what He has done.

God is my treasure.
God is my strength.

He will reward me greatly because I always search to know Him more.

His words have great power and so do my words.

When I speak what He speaks,
I bring heaven to earth.

Parent-Child Activity

You believe God by trusting everything He says, by putting Him first in your life and by knowing He is working out your life for you.

Name 2 other ways in which you believe God.

- Friendship - closeness between two or more people that care about each other

How do you show that you care for your friends?

- Promise - something that someone said very strongly that they would do

What is the promise in John 3:16?

- Reward - something given for an action

Every good thing that you do is rewarded by God. What are 2 good things that you can do today?

Prayer

Lord, help me to believe what You say even when things get hard.
Help me to always trust You. Amen.
